

February 27, 1974

PRESIDENT: We will lay the bill over. The next bill is 976.

CLERK: I have some reports I'd like to read if I may.

PRESIDENT: Clerk will read the reports.

CLERK: Reports read.

PRESIDENT: Senator Stromer.

SENATOR STROMER: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk. I don't know if we have enough people here to handle it, but we can try.

PRESIDENT: The Clerk will read the motion.

CLERK: motion read by clerk.

SENATOR STROMER: Mr. President and fellow members this was a bill that was reported to the floor last year, it had some amendments on it from Senator Waldron, which were in turn put into the form of a bill this year. This is dealing with the vice presidential primary, which is actually a way to give the people a choice, and take this away from bathroom politics. And I think that since we do have the bill in another form, we need to have the bill back in committee for the purpose that it was sent there, and so I'd like to put it on General File.

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk has a sufficient days elapsed since the bill was heard?

CLERK: Committee, yes.

PRESIDENT: This takes 25 votes, and then if it's not brought to General File, it becomes a dead bill. It's LB 176. What did you say, 174. Any discussion of bringing this to General File. It's now in committee. Those in favor of bring this to the floor of the Senate from the committee vote aye, those opposed vote nay. Mr. Whitney voting aye. I wish the body would consider the fact that we are voting on 174. Bringing it to the General File.

SENATOR STROMER: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Stromer

SENATOR STROMER: I would call for a Call of the House.

PRESIDENT: Clerk will clear the board. The motion now is for a Call of the House. Those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote nay. Voting aye. Whitney voting aye. Have you all voted. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 5 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: we are under a Call of the House. So everybody takes their seats, please. And the Sergeant of Arms go out and find the persons absent. And bring them to the chambers.

CLERK: Senator Whitney voting aye on the original motion. Senator Rasmussen voting aye on the original motion. Senator Fellman voting no. Senator Kelly voting aye, Senator Cal Carstens
